TAKE NO PART IN THE UNFRUITFUL WORKS OF DARKNESS, BUT INSTEAD EXPOSE THEM

Ephesians 5:11

Hello
October

Dear Friends...

Many of us enjoy completing jigsaws and certainly we have a good stock available in many of the churches in our area! Perhaps you enjoy the challenge of a really difficult picture or perhaps you avoid pictures with too much sea or sky? It can be very difficult to build up the picture even by looking at the full picture; some pieces are easy to identify others much more difficult; some pieces fit easily others are more awkward. Even more frustrating is when completed you discover a piece is missing!

We all have some picture of how we would like life to be – for ourselves, our families, our community, and our churches. We work on putting the pieces together building up the picture with those around us. The picture builds up and although we cannot always see the completed picture, God sees the whole picture clearly – past, present, and future. The picture may seem vague to us, and we wonder how it will be completed. God asks us to trust and to seek guidance rather than rely solely on our own plans and schemes so that step by step the picture will be revealed. God asks us to trust him with all the pieces of our lives – the easy, the difficult, the awkward and the joyful – both individually and together as God’s people.

As we work on that picture together, we need to be alert that there are no missing pieces – all the different shapes and sizes are needed to complete the picture!

Every blessing to you,

Deacon Jackie Fowler
